

Investing in the Community: Giving to the Junior League of Raleigh

— 2010-2011 —
ANNUAL REPORT

WENDY WEBSTER
President

From the President

2010-2011 was truly a year of investing in the community!

We celebrated our 80th anniversary with a proclamation from the Mayor of Raleigh to commemorate the League's many years of service and to recognize the Junior League of Raleigh for its outstanding commitment to voluntarism and investment in numerous community projects and programs.

Our investment in the community continued with the Grand Opening of the Center for Community Leadership which plays a vital role in moving our community forward to meet the urgent needs of the nonprofit sector. The Center extends the League's mission and broadens its outreach to meet the space and training needs of the diverse and growing Triangle community and beyond. The center is also recognized as an architectural gem as in the receipt of the 2011 Triangle Commercial Real Estate Women (TCREW) award for the best redevelopment project.

In parallel we continued our investment in our members via leadership development with the inaugural year of the Capital Leadership Initiative (CLI) which provides relevant, engaging and dynamic leadership programming for women in our community and across the state.

Others outside the organization continued to recognize our investments as well. Our new cookbook, "You're Invited Back" received accolades from the SIBA - Southern Independent Booksellers Alliance 2011 Book Award List.

Because of the dedication of our membership we were able to accomplish many milestones this past year and in turn created a lasting impact to our community. The Junior League of Raleigh is fortunate to have such a wealth of talented women in our membership – Sustainers, Provisionals and Actives, who are dedicated to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

Thank you for investing in the community!

INVESTING IN THE COMMUNITY

2010-2011 JLR Leadership Team Goals

-  Stabilize the League's financial situation by strengthening existing fundraising efforts and identifying new sources of funding
-  Make members matter - recognizing that members are the integral part of this organization
-  Develop the potential of our Center for Community Leadership through community impact, outreach and volunteer services
-  Establish and execute a communications plan to educate the League about the challenges and opportunities facing the League
-  Maximize membership development, training and retention

Mission Statement

The Junior League of Raleigh, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

We are...

An organization of more than 1,900 women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

Since 1930, the Junior League of Raleigh gave more than $4.8 million to education, health and other services for women and children of Raleigh. Annually our 1,900 members donate approximately 50,000 hours of volunteer service to the community.

Since 2000, the target area of the Junior League of Raleigh has been promising youth. Our membership positively impacts the lives of children in our community through strategic partnerships and collaborations with other community agencies, volunteer placements, and the community grants we give annually.

The Junior League of Raleigh's financial statements are audited annually. The condensed financial statements presented above are derived from the 2010-2011 audited financial statements prepared by the firm of Boyce, Furr & Company, LLP. A complete copy of such financial statements and auditor's report may be obtained at League headquarters located at 711 Hillsborough Street in Raleigh or by calling 919-787-7480. In addition, ongoing planning and monitoring of Junior League of Raleigh's income and expenditures are conducted by several in-League volunteer entities. The League's Finance Committee is responsible for advising the Board of Directors and leadership councils on financial matters, assisting in the preparation of the annual budget, examining budgets of proposed projects, reviewing the League's investment portfolio, and reviewing and approving the various reserved funds. Finance Committee members are also designated as liaisons to each Junior League of Raleigh committee. As liaisons, these Finance volunteers serve as information resources on financial matters, assisting committee Chairs in understanding their current year budgets and developing a budget for the next fiscal year. These efforts help assure sound financial management and adherence to the Junior League of Raleigh's fiscal and community service strategies.
