Annual Report to the Community
2009-2010

This page intentionally left blank.

The Junior League of Raleigh experienced tremendous growth and change during the 2009-2010 League year. We celebrated 80 years of service to our community, hosted the 25th Annual A Shopping SPREE!, launched a new cookbook, "You're Invited Back," and saw the renovation of and the move into our new home at 711 Hillsborough Street where we began to welcome the community to our Center for Community Leadership.

The 2009-2010 Board and Leadership Council served as good stewards of the needs of our members, the needs of our community and the finances of the League. Our existing community projects took on greater significance as the economy increased the number of clients at our partner agencies and deepened community needs generally. To address the new economic challenges, our League also worked to help provide additional training to our community partners and our members to increase power of our combined knowledge and skills. The 2009-2010 Board and Leadership Council sharpened their focus on the League's finances, working to emphasize fiscal responsibility and fiscal focus in a changed and challenging climate for charitable giving and fundraising.

The positive impact of the League is clear:

- We gave $25,015 in Community Grants to agencies that serve promising youth in Wake County.
- Our members contributed more than 30,000 hours of community service to agencies in Wake County and to the League itself, the equivalent of $604,800.
- A record number of women indicated an interest in joining the League, resulting in a Provisional class of 166 women and a waiting list of women who began their Provisional class in 2010-2011.
- The Capital Leadership Initiative, a leadership development program for League members, accepted applications for its inaugural class.
- Through Community Connect, the League provided quarterly training sessions that were free to members of our League and nonprofits in our community.
- The Center for Community Leadership, our new home, opened its doors and began to fulfill the League's goal of providing much needed, affordable meeting space for nonprofits and a centrally located, affordable meeting venue for other companies and entities in our community.

The Junior League of Raleigh has accomplished all this and so much more this year. Our successes are a result of the commitment of time, effort, and the financial support of our members, and the financial support and involvement of our community.

Melissa Ross Matton
President 2009-2010

A New Home and a New Resource for our Community: 711 Hillsborough Street The Junior League of Raleigh's Center for Community Leadership

In 2001, the Junior League of Raleigh asked our community partners about their needs and a recurring theme was a need for accessible meeting space. The following year, the membership voted to pursue a new space that would become the League's new home, as well a community crossroads where League members and community advocates could come together to spark change.

After consideration of several other buildings, the League purchased the 28,000-square-foot building leased by the Capitol Broadcasting Company at 711 Hillsborough Street in 2007. Centrally located, on the bus line and in the heart of the ever-growing downtown Raleigh, the new location was close to community partners and the agencies that need these training facilities the most.

In June 2009, the League began extensive interior renovations to the building, reconfiguring it to suit the needs of a training facility and headquarters. In March 2010, the renovations to the building were complete, and the League moved into the new space.

The League occupies the building's ground floor, which provides four times more space than the Barrett Drive headquarters. The Center boasts a 196-person capacity training room, boardroom, numerous meeting rooms, volunteer workrooms, a living room, catering kitchen, children's playroom and JLR administrative offices, in addition to ample parking. This additional space gives the League the ability to have many different committee meetings at the same time.

The Center for Community Leadership's first floor meeting rooms were available for rent to community agencies, other nonprofits and local businesses in summer of 2010. The space on the first floor is also available to rent for special events.

The second floor is available for lease, and the Junior League of Raleigh is actively seeking a tenant or tenants for the space on the second floor.

The Junior League of Raleigh's financial statements are audited annually. The condensed financial statement presented here is from the 2009-2010 audited financial statements prepared by the firm or Boyce, Furr & Company, LLP. A complete copy of such financial statements and auditor's report may be obtained at League headquarters located at 711 Hillsborough Street in Raleigh or by calling 919-787-7480. In addition, ongoing planning and monitoring of the Junior League of Raleigh's income and expenditures are conducted by several in-League volunteer entities. The League's Finance Committee is responsible for advising the Board of Directors and leadership councils on financial matters, assisting in the preparation of the annual budget, examining budgets of proposed projects, reviewing the League's investment portfolio and reviewing and approving the various reserved funds. Finance Committee members are also designated as liaisons to each Junior League of Raleigh team. As liaisons, these Finance Committee members serve as information resources on financial matters, assisting team leaders in understanding their current year budgets and developing a budget for the next fiscal year. These efforts help assure sound financial management and adherence to the Junior League of Raleigh's fiscal and community service strategies.

Junior League of Raleigh Headquarters Staff

The Junior League of Raleigh, while a volunteer organization, could not be as effective without the support of our talented headquarter's staff. In a year that included packing up an office where the League had lived and worked for more than 20 years and moving into a newly renovated building and working to develop new practices for our new space, the League owes much to our dedicated and skilled support in our headquarters.

Joe Wallach, Finance Director
Terri Ferraro, Membership Records Director
Lori Edwards, Administrative Assistant

Bargain Box Staff

The team of women who volunteer with the Bargain Box are supported by a strong staff. The staff at the Bargain Box help maintain and run this oldest, continuous fundraiser of the League. During this challenging financial time, the staff at the Bargain Box have been a lifeline for struggling families in our community.

Fundraisers

The Junior League of Raleigh uses member-planned and member-run fundraisers to support the projects and programs of the League.

This year we celebrated the 25th Anniversary of A Shopping SPREE!

Three years of hard work, planning and lots of recipe tests culminated in the publication of “You’re Invited Back,” our first new cookbook in a decade, which features easy to use recipes and gorgeous photographs of Raleigh landmarks.

Showcase of Kitchens

Presented by The Junior League of Raleigh

Showcase of Kitchens reached its fourth year with gorgeous kitchens, ranging from new constructions to superb renovations.

Our longest-running fundraiser, the Bargain Box, provided a haven in the economic storm with its reasonably priced, gently used clothing and household items. The Bargain Box and its team of Junior League members partnered with the merchants of Cameron Village to host the first Drop & Shop, which provided community members with discount coupons in exchange for their clothing donations.

The Junior League of Raleigh thanks all of our sponsors who have supported our Fundraisers. Your support impacts our community by supporting the effective action of trained Junior League volunteers.
