

The Junior League of Raleigh (JLR) is a local chapter of the Association of Junior Leagues International, an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.

With nearly 1,400 women dedicated to serving children and their families throughout Wake County, JLR engages women through leadership training and structured volunteer opportunities, and is committed to their personal and professional growth. Our diverse membership of professional volunteers positively impacts the lives of children and their families through our strategic partnerships with other community agencies year after year.

Our Julia Jones Daniels Center for Community Leadership is a leadership training hub, which offers affordable meeting space and training for League members, the local community, and more than 170 nonprofit agencies.

In 2019-2020, the Junior League of Raleigh awarded nearly $20,000 in grants to three Wake County organizations: The Hope Center at Pullen, Fill Your Bucket List Foundation, and Designed for Joy. Supported by proceeds from the Junior League of Raleigh's A Shopping SPREE! event, the Legacy Fund awarded more than $220,000 in grants to nonprofit agencies since its launch in 2004. Each year, grants are awarded to Wake County charitable organizations whose missions and focuses align closely with the League's commitment to empower women and at-risk youth through educational and charitable initiatives.
